I'll be the one.

When I look at the stars, shining bright tonight.
It helps me to see that darkness fades to light.

So many people,
Are needing aid,
So I'll be with you
When the light begins to fade.

I'll be the one, when the moment comes.
I'll be the one, to help you through the storm.
I'll be the one, to help you find the light.
Just let me be the one.

When I look at the world, its beauty shines so bright.
Let me help you to see the wonder and delight.
So many people,
Choose to see the dark
So I'll be with you
To look inside your heart.

I'll be the one, when the moment comes.
I'll be the one, to help you through the storm.
I'll be the one, to help you find the light.
Just let me be the one.

There will be times
When you're alone
No guiding light
Just phone!

I'll be the one
To see you through
When the skies turn grey
I'll stand by you! I'll stand by you!

I'll be the one, when the moment comes.
I'll be the one, to help you through the storm.
I'll be the one, to help you find the light.
Just let me be the one.

So many people,
Choose to see the dark

So I'll be with you
To look inside your heart.
I'll be the one, when the moment comes.
I'll be the one, to help you through the storm.
I'll be the one, to help you find the light.
Just let me be the one.
Just let me be the one.
